

In case the said Richard Wallis do not learn his said apprentice during his servitude to read write and cypher as far as the rule of three (inclusive) ^{and the trade of a tite cooper} and at the expiration of his servitude do not give him anew suit of cloaths, and above six, a hand saw, one adze, three Chizzells of different ^{and two gonges} sizes and two axes. & likewise if he do not provide for his said apprentice meat drink washing Lodging and apparell mete for such an apprentice to have and wear during the term aforesaid &c.

David Odaugh } David Odaugh son of Owen Odaugh an orphan of his own free consent according to act bound to . . . } of assembly is bound by the Court unto a certain John Wootten until he arrives at the John Wootten . . . } age of twenty one years the said David Odaugh to serve his said master the term afo during which term the said David his said master well and faithfully shall serve his secrets keep his commandments Lawfully and honestly every where willingly shall do and in all things as a good and faithful servant shall demean himself towards his said master and all his during his servitude aforesaid &c.

In consideration of which service the said John Wootten present here in Court Covenanteth with the Justice of the Court on behalf of the said David Odaugh, that during the term aforesaid he will learn him to read write and cypher as far as the rule of three (inclusive) and the trade of a tite cooper, and at the expiration of his servitude give him anew suit of cloaths over and above his common wearing cloath, and likewise give his said apprentice a compleat set of tite coopers tools &c.

whereupon it is ordered by the Court here that the said John Wootten give security for to comply with the covenants aforesaid &c.

Thereupon the said John Wootten with John Redwell ^{his security} both present here in Court active themselves to stand indebted unto the said David Odaugh in the sum of twenty pounds Sterling Cash of his said David Odaugh his heirs and assigns &c.

In case the said John Wootten do not learn his said apprentice during his servitude to read write and cypher as far as the rule of three (inclusive) ^{and the trade of a tite cooper} and at the expiration of his servitude do not give him anew suit of cloaths over and above his common wearing cloaths and a compleat set of tite coopers tools, and likewise if he do not provide for his said apprentice meat drink washing Lodging and apparell mete for such an apprentice to have and wear during the term aforesaid &c.

Owen Odaugh } Owen Odaugh son of Owen Odaugh an orphan, of his own free consent, according to bound to . . . } act of assembly is bound by the Court unto a certain Joseph Cottman of Somerset County Joseph Cottman } wheelwright, until he arrives at the age of twenty one years, the said Owen Odaugh the younger to serve his said master the term aforesaid, during which term the said Owen Odaugh the his younger his said master well and faithfully shall serve his secrets keep his commandments Lawfully and honestly every where, willingly shall do and in all things as a good and faithful servant shall demean himself towards his said master and all his during his servitude aforesaid &c.

In consideration of which service the said Joseph Cottman present here in Court Covenanteth with the Justice of the Court on behalf of the said Owen Odaugh the younger, that during the term aforesaid he will learn him to read write and cypher as far as the rule of three (inclusive) and the trade of a tite cooper, and at the expiration of his servitude give him anew suit of cloaths over and above his common wearing cloath, and likewise give his said apprentice a compleat set of tite coopers tools &c.