

March Court ----- 1731 -----

Side of Morisco Dams and the aforesd Curtes Layed his hand on the aforesd - Boulder and told him this Deponent that was the first Boulder of the Land - Called Long Ridge and this Deponent further Saith that he was after ward in The Woods with W^m Callin and that the Said Callin told him this Depo: that the aforesd white oak was the first Boulder of the afo Land Called Long - Ridge and this Depo: further Saith that at the time aforesd When James Curtis Shewed him the Boulder this Deponant said to the Said Curtes that the marks in the tree was almost gone out and this Deponant with an ax sliped the aforesd Boulder facing towards the path aforesd which Slipo plainely appears before us and further Saith not - Timothy ^{his} Sullivan mark

William Pusey aged thirty two years or thereabouts being by us Sworn upon the holy Evangelist of Almighty God Depoeth ^{and saith} that he this Deponent was one ^{former owner of the} of the aforesd Land Called Long Ridge and that he was told by Joseph Porter that the white oak now in his Sight Standing on the North side of Morisco Dams by the Side of a path was the first boulder or Corner tree of the aforesaid - Land Called Long Ridge aforesd which is the Same tree Sworn to by the above - Timothy Sullivan and further saith not - Will^{his} Pusey
mark

William Callin aged forty four years or thereabouts being by us Sworn upon the holy Evangelist of Almighty God Depoeth ^{saith} and that he heard Adam Hitch and James Curtes say that the white oak now in Sight was the boulder of Long Ridge which is the same white oak mentioned in the above Depositions and the said Callin being by the Commissioners Desired if he knew of aney other - boulder belonging to the aforesd Land to shew it but the afo Callin Denied that he knew of no other boulder for said the Deponant aforesd If I could have Shewed aney other boulder he should have Shewed it before now and that would have Ended the Dispute and further Saith not - Francis Allen The above Depositions were taken before us the day and year } W^m Lane - above said as Witness our hands

Somerset County J. Depositions of witnesses taken at the house of Edward Beauchamp in parsonage hundred in Somerset County the fourth day of May and Dow. 1730 before us Francis Allen and William Lane Commissioners appointed by the worshipfull the Justices of Somerset County Court to examine Evidence on behalfe of the Said Edward Beauchamp in relation to the bounds of a tract of Land lying in said County of Somerset Called Long Ridge as follows vizt. -

Adam Health of Somerset County Gent. aged Twenty two years or thereabouts being before us sworn upon the holy evangelist of Almighty God Depoeth and Saith that about thirty eight years ago he purchased the tract of Land called Long Ridge of Robert Celyn who showed