Bee it known to all concerned that on the 17th day of June Ann<sup>d</sup> 1732 we the subscribers met at Mr: David Willson to Execute a Commission of Auditt hereunto Annexed at what time of law were present Trille Brown Plff<sup>t</sup> and Boaz Walston and Mary his wife Def<sup>t</sup> and after due Examination of what each party had to say Relating to their disputes do report as followeth — It did then appear to us by John Browns will that the aforesaid Trille was Left to the Care of John Fountain now De<sup>d</sup>: until he should arrive at full Age of twenty one years before which time the said Fountain die<sup>d</sup>: and further itt appears to us that Mary of then widdow of said Fountain now wife to Boaz Walston Caused the aforesaid Trille Brown to appear at Court in a few Months after the death of her husband Fountain to have the Courts Direction therein and the said Brown was by the Court Ordered to
