

March Court --- 1732 --- 279
selfe towards his said master and all his during the term aforesaid &c

In consideration of which Service the said John Phillips present here in Court in his proper person Covenanteth with the Justices of the Peace Court in Court Judicially Sitting on behalfe of the said Thomas Layfield that he the said John Phillips during the term aforesaid will Learn his said apprentice the trade of Shoemaker and to lead well in the bible and at the Expiration of his Servitude Give his said apprentice a new Suit of Cloathes over and above his Common wearing Cloathes and a set of Shoemakers tools, and Likewise find and provide for his said apprentice meat drinke washing Lodging and Cloathing and all other necessarys sufficient for such an apprentice to have and wear during the term aforesaid &c. - Whereupon it is ordered by the Court here that the aforesaid John Phillips Give Security for to comply with his Covenants aforesaid &c.

Thereupon the said John Phillips with John Denton of Somerset County planter his Security both present here in Court in their proper persons acknowledged themselves to owe and stand justly Indebted unto the said Thomas Layfield in twenty pounds Sterling good and Lawfull money of England jointly and severally of their bodies Goods and Chattells Lands and tenements, to the use of the said Thomas Layfield his and assigns. If it happen that the aforesaid John Phillips do not during the term of Servitude aforesaid Learn his said apprentice the trade of a Shoemaker and to lead well in the bible and at the Expiration of his Servitude do not Give him a new Suit of Cloathes over and above his Common wearing Cloathes and do not Likewise provide for his said apprentice meat drinke washing Lodging and Cloathing and all other necessarys sufficient for such an apprentice to have and wear during the term aforesaid &c.

William Jones Maning Overseer of the Roads in Maning hundred in the stead of Philip Lorington lately dead &c
William Jones of Gore Creek appointed Overseer of the roads in Manorian Hundred in the stead of William Bosman &c -

James King prays that his Servant woman Jane Andrews may be adjudged to Serve him according to act of assembly for fifteen day Runaway time during her Service with him, Whereupon the Court do adjudge that the said Jane Andrews Serve her said Master James King his heirs or assigns two day for every day she had absented herself as aforesaid, which amounts in the whole to thirty eight day, which said thirty eight day Service is adjudged by the Court to be full Satisfaction for the Run away time aforesaid, and to Commence at the Expiration of her Indented or Contracted Service &c