

the Magraw the Elder who pointed his hand towards said point and said on that point stood Mr. Whittys uppermost bounder of Colebrook being a white oak from that he the said Magraw had marked it with his own hands near which place there is this day a mulberry flat put up markt with four Notches on Each side and further this Deponant saith not. Taken before us this 15th day of may 1731. Rob: King Tho: Brown

Robert Laws aged fifty years or thereabouts Depoeth on the holy Evangelist of allmighty God that he this deponant was on a Jury to Enquire into the bounds of a tract or field of Land called Colebrook about twenty four or five years since as near as he can Remember at which time George Dels now Deceased was product as an Evidence to prove the uppermost bounder of the afd Land called Colebrook who was sworn and also Wm Waller since deceased with George Phebus who is now here present the aforesaid Dells Declared that as he was going or passing along the Road apposeit to a point where he this deponant now stands near to the Mouth of a glade a little down goose creek from Wm Jones house where Geo Phebus deposed that he had seen a markt white oak that he had been shoud as the uppermost bounder of Colebrook Owen Magraw the Elder being in company with the afd Dells the said Magraw told him that down on that point directing his hand toward the place above described stood the uppermost bounder of Colebrook or Mr. Whittys Land from that he the said Owen Magraw had marked the said bounder with his own hands and William Waller above mentioned Declared that Richard Whitty in his life time had often acknowledged the place and here above mentioned as his uppermost bounder of Colebrook and further saith not, Taken before us the 7th day of may and end 1731 - Rob: King Tho: Brown Tho: Gillette

George Phebus aged Seventy years or thereabouts depoeth on the Holy Evangelist of allmighty God that he has seen a white Oak tree marked as a bounder that is now gone standing on a point of high Land a little below a Glade that Issues out of Goose creek a small Distance from Wm Jones house down the creek near to Dead Red oak Saplin which this Deponant has been severall times at with his master Whitty and once with Eld David Brown in company and that the tree and place aforesaid that this Deponant is now at and from whence he this deponant has been the Core of Colebrook Run two or three times was deemed and Reputed as the uppermost bounder of the afd Tract called Colebrook formerly in the Possession of Richard Whitty deceased. George Baxman the Elder the first of that name that Sealed on Moncken River was the first person that shewed this deponant the above markt white oak and that his master afd always acknowledged it was his uppermost bounder of Colebrook afd and that this Deponant had Information to the same Effect of what is above mentioned Relating to the white oak Tree afd from many other persons and further saith not. Taken before us the Subscribers this 7th day of may and D: 1731 Rob: King Tho: Brown Tho: Gillette

