

The following message was received from His Excellency Governor Veazey, by the hands of Thomas Culbreth, Esquire, Clerk of the Council,

It was read, and ordered to lie on the table, and 111 copies of the accompanying documents ordered to be printed for the use of the General Assembly.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

ANNAPOLIS, February 8th, 1837.

Gentlemen of the Senate and of the House of Delegates:

We herewith transmit to you a report of the President and Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, showing the progress of the works on the canal, the means in their contrul for its prosecution; and the prospects of its completion: together with a printed copy of their eighth annual report to the stockholders, made in June last.

We have the honor to remain,

With the highest respect,

Your obedient servants,

THO. W. VEAZEY.

The clerk of the House of Delegates delivered a resolution in favor of Mrs. Emily Forrest of St. Mary's county, Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on finance.

Mr. Ricaud presented the petition of Edward Hines for relief as an insolvent debtor,

Which was read and referred to the committee on insolvency.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

THURSDAY, February 9, 1837.

The Senate met. Present the same Senators as on yesterday, except Mr. Schley. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Mr. Wright from the committee on insolvency, to which was referred the bill entitled, an act for the relief
