

Leave was granted to Messrs. Bowie, Cottman and Beckett, to prepare and report a bill to be entitled, an act to alter, repeal and abolish all that part of the Constitution and Form of Government which inhibits the Senate from originating or amending a money bill.

Mr. Bowie from the committee on judicial proceedings to which the leave was granted, reported a bill entitled, an act relating to changing the venue for the trial of issues of fact framed in the court of chancery, or any county court as a court of equity, or Orphans court of this state and sent to a county court for trial,

Which was read the first time.

On motion of Mr. Ricaud,

Leave was granted to Messrs. Ricaud, Bowie and Tidball, to prepare and report a bill to be entitled, an act to require the chancery court and the several county courts of this state to demand bond with security in certain cases of injunction.

Mr. Cottman submitted the following message,
Which was read and adopted:

By the Senate,
February 14, 1837.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message of the 13th inst, proposing to elect on Thursday 23d inst, a U. S. Senator, for six years from and after the 4th of March next, and concur therein.

By order,
Jos. H. Nicholson, Clk.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.
