

granted, reported a bill entitled, an act to require the chancery court and the several county courts of this state, to demand bond with surety in cases of injunction.

Which was read the first time.

On motion of Mr Tidball,

The bill entitled, an act relating to the proof of accounts of clerks of county courts and registers of wills against their respective counties, was taken up for consideration.

It was being further read the third time, when

On motion of Mr. Brown,

The amendment heretofore proposed by him as the 2nd section of the bill, was reconsidered and withdrawn.

On the further motion of Mr. Brown,

The following amendment was read and assented to.

Strike out from the word 'counties' 4th line, to the word 'drawn' 5th line.

On motion of Mr. Tidball,

The following amendment was read and assented to:

Strike out all after the word 'deputy,' 1st section, and insert the following:

'And it shall be lawful for the levy courts, county commissioners or commissioners of the tax, as the case may be, to have free access to the records of the registers of wills, clerks of county courts and sheriffs without charge, for the purpose of examining the accounts of said registers of wills, clerks of county courts or sheriffs, so far as regards their charges against their respective counties.'

On motion of Mr. Hilleary,

The following amendment was read and assented to:

In the title of the bill, 2nd line after the word 'wills,' insert 'and sheriffs.'

The bill was then read the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill entitled, an act relating to changing the venue for the trial of issues of fact framed in the Court of Chancery or any county court as a court of equity or orphans court of this state and sent to a county court for trial, was read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

It was accordingly engrossed, and

On motion of Mr. Bowie,

Read the third time by special order, passed and sent to the house of delegates.
