

On motion of Mr. Ricaud,

The bill entitled, an act supplemental to an act limiting the time for the collection of fees of attorneys, solicitors, clerks, registers, sheriffs and other officers of this state, passed at December session 1833, chapter 250, was taken up for consideration and passed.

Mr. Bowie from the committee to which the leave was granted, reported a bill entitled, an act to alter, repeal and abolish all that part of the Constitution and form of government, which inhibits the Senate from originating or amending a money bill.

Which was read the first time.

The President laid before the Senate a communication from John Durburrow, Secretary of the Washington and Baltimore Turnpike Road Company, enclosing an abstract of the accounts of said company, in conformity to the directions of an act of assembly, passed at November session 1812, entitled, an act to incorporate a company to make a Turnpike Road from the District of Columbia to the city of Baltimore,

Which was read and referred to the consideration of the House of Delegates.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock

SATURDAY, February 18, 1837.

The Senate met. Present the same Senators as on yesterday the proceedings of yesterday were read.

The communication from John Durburrow, Secretary of the Washington and Baltimore Turnpike Road Company, referred yesterday to the consideration of the house of delegates, was sent, and

The bill entitled, an act supplemental to an act limiting the time for the collection of fees of attorneys, solicitors, clerks, registers, sheriffs and other officers of this State, passed at December session 1833, chapter 250, passed by the Senate on yesterday, was returned to the house of delegates.
