

reeled, would be worth double that sum. Many other equally interesting and important facts are disclosed in the "Manuel," the authentication of which is equally strong. With such evidence as this before us, and much more that might be adduced from the work alluded to, it seems to us that there can be little doubt of the commanding importance of this subject to the people of Maryland, and we would therefore respectfully suggest to you the propriety of ordering the procurement, from Mr. Edwards, who has secured the copy-right of the work, such a number of copies, as in your judgment, may be deemed sufficient to enlighten the public mind on a matter so deeply affecting the welfare and prosperity of the people.

The price, per copy, we have been informed by Mr. Wilson, one of the publishers, will not exceed 25 cents, provided a large number be ordered for distribution,

With great respect,

We have the honor to remain

Your obedient servants,

THO. W. VEAZEY.
