It was read the second time, and

On motion of Mr. Purnell,

Ordered to lie on the table.

On motion of Mr. Schley,

The bill entitled, an act to enable Theodorick Bland to bring certain slaves into this State, was reconsidered.

On motion of Mr. Schley,

The following amendment was read and assented to.

Strike out all of the bill after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

'That it shall and may be lawful for Theodorick Bland of the city of Annapolis, to introduce into this State certain slaves for life, which are proposed to be given to him, as he suggests in his petition, by his uncle, Thomas Fitzhugh of the State of Virginia; provided, that the said Theodorick Bland, shall comply in all respects, with the existing provisions of law, in relation to slaves acquired by gift, except only, that the declaration in writing prescribed by the second section of the act entitled, 'a further supplement to an act entitled, a supplement to an act relating to free negroes and slaves,' passed at December session 1335, chapter 61, instead of being made by the donor, as required by said section, may be made by the said Theodorick Bland.'

The bill was then read and rejected.

On motion of Mr. Brown,

The bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Real Estate Bank of the State of Maryland, was read the second time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Hambleton from the committee to which the leave was granted, reported a bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to regulate the compensation of jurors, the judges of the orphans' court, the judges of the levy court, commissioners of the Tax and witnesses for Caroline county, passed at December session 1834, chapter 208,

Which was read the first and by special order, the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Jones from the committee on corporations and joint stock companies to which was referred the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Vestry of the Lutheran Church in Cumberland, Allegany county, reported favorably thereon.
