

Which was read the first, and by special order the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading,

It was accordingly engrossed, and,

On motion of Mr. Tidball,

Read the third time by special order, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the House of Delegates delivered the following message.

By the House of Delegates,

March 18, 1837.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message proposing to close the present session of the legislature on Tuesday next but believe that we cannot get through with the business now before us, before Wednesday, we propose that we should fix on that day as a more suitable one for the adjournment sine die.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, Clk.

Also delivered a bill entitled an act for the benefit of the Commercial Bank of Millington, in Kent county,

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on finance.

Also delivered the bill entitled an act providing for the appointment of clerks of the several county courts, the clerks of the courts of appeals for Eastern and Western shore, the clerk of Baltimore city court, and the register of wills in the several counties of this State, endorsed, "amendments of the Senate assented to with the proposed amendment," which proposed amendment was as follows:

Insert after the words "by and with the advice and consent of the Senate," in the second and third lines, the words "and of the House of Delegates."

On motion of Mr. Brown,

The said proposed amendment was referred to Messrs. Schley, Wright, Beckett, Brown, Hambleton and Bowie.

Mr. Jones submitted the following message:

Which was read, and,

On motion of Mr. Beckett,

It was ordered to lie on the table.
