

By the Senate,

March 18, 1937.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message proposing to adjourn the session of the Legislature, finally, on Wednesday the 22d instant, and concur therewith.

By order,

Jos H. Nicholson, clk.

On motion of Mr. Purnell,

The bill entitled an act to grant a donation to the Manchester Academy in Carroll county,

Was read the third time by special order, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Brown from the committee to which was referred the amendment proposed by the house of delegates to the amendment proposed by the senate to the bill entitled an act providing for the appointment of clerks of the several county courts, the clerks of the court of appeals, for the eastern and western shore, the clerk of Baltimore city court, and the register of Wills in the several counties of this state, reported that the committee were of opinion the said proposed amendment ought not to be agreed to.

The said proposed amendment was then read and disagreed to, and the bill returned to the house of delegates.

On motion of Mr. Brown,

The bill entitled an act to repeal so much of the act to limit and define the jurisdiction of Justices of the peace, passed at december session 1834, as relates to Baltimore county,

Was taken up for consideration, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

On motion of Mr. Brown,

The bill entitled an act to incorporate the Annapolis and Elkridge Rail Road Company,

Was taken up for consideration and read the second time.

The bill entitled an act to alter and abolish all that part of the constitution and form of Government, which inhibits the Senate from originating, or amending a money bill,

Was read the second time, when,

On motion of Purnell,
