

It was read the second and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the house of Delegates.

The clerk of the House of Delegates delivered the following message.

By the House of Delegates,
March 21, 1837.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We take the liberty to return to your honorable body a resolution in favor of Julia Gwynn, which was heretofore rejected by you; upon a review of the evidence which accompanied the resolution when it was formerly before you, we have reason to apprehend the ground of its rejection, was, that the identity of Mrs. Gwynn, as the widow of a revolutionary soldier, was not clearly made out; additional evidence has since been laid before us which removes all doubt upon that subject,—We therefore request that you will reconsider the resolution.

By order,
G. G. Brewer, Clk.

Also the following resolutions:

A resolution in favor of Mary Carlin,

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on revolutionary claims.

A resolution in relation to issuing a warrant to the heirs of Capt. Bennet, Bracco,

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on revolutionary claims.
