

It was read the second and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Hilleary from the committee on divorces to which was referred the bill entitled an act to divorce Harriet Dorney of Harford county, from her husband Henry Dorney, reported favorably thereon,

It was read the second and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Hilleary from the committee on divorces to which was referred the bill entitled an act to divorce Samuel Keplinger, jur. of the city of Baltimore, from his wife Mary Keplinger, reported that the committee were of opinion it ought not to pass.

It was read the second and by special order the third time, rejected and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Brown from the committee on finance to which was referred the bill entitled a supplement to the act entitled an act to incorporate the commercial bank of Baltimore, passed at December session 1836, chapter 289, reported that the committee were of opinion it ought not to pass.

It was read the second and by special order the third time, rejected and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Brown from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled an act to provide for a further loan to the penitentiary, reported that a majority of the committee were of opinion it ought to pass,

It was read the second and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Jones and Mr. Cottman who were appointed conjointly with a committee of the house of delegates, to wait on his Excellency Governor Veavey, and invite his attendance in the Senate chamber to-morrow (Wednesday,) at 9 o'clock, A. M. to sign the engrossed bills; retired and after some time returned and reported that they had discharged the duty assigned them, and had received for answer that his Excellency would attend at the hour appointed.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered the following bills:

A bill entitled an act to lay out and open a public road in Frederick and Carroll county,