

at their election, become such depositors at five per cent per annum, agreeably to the existing provisions of the charter of said bank, or become such depositors at four per cent per annum, in which latter case the said bank shall, upon demand, pay over to such four per cent depositors the amount by them respectively deposited and demanded, with interest thereon, at the rate of four per cent per annum.

Which was read.

On the question being put, will the house adopt the substitute? it was

Resolved in the affirmative.

The said bill was then read the second time, as amended, and passed.

On motion of Mr. Gough,

The house took up for consideration the bill reported by him, entitled, a supplement to an act, entitled, an act authorising persons holding real estate in fee simple to construct wharves on any of the navigable waters of this state, passed at December session, 1835, chapter 68;

On motion of Mr. Gough, said bill was then recommitted.

On motion of Mr. Tuck,

The house took up for consideration the bill reported by Mr. Comegys, entitled, a further supplement to an act, entitled, an act relating to free negroes and slaves, passed at December session, 1831, chapter 323;

On motion of Mr. Tuck,

Said bill was referred to the committee on colored population.

The bill from the Senate, entitled, an act to confirm an act, entitled, an act to alter and amend the constitution and form of government, so as to require the assent of two-thirds of each branch of the legislature to annul a marriage contract,

Was taken up for consideration, and the unfavorable report of the committee on divorces, recommending the rejection of said bill;

On the question being put, will the house concur in said report, and reject the bill?—it was

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Iglehart,
