So the bill was rejected.

The report submitted by Mr. Ridgely, on the 10th inst. from the majority of the select committee raised for the purpose of inquiring into the propriety of passing a law prohibiting the wearing of dirks, pistols, Bowie knives, or other deadly weapons, except by military men, and making the wearing of such weapons a penal offence,

And the substitute offered by Mr. Richardson, from the minority of said committee, being a report, accompanied with a bill, entitled, an act to prohibit the wearing of pistols, dirks, Bowie knives, and other deadly weapons,

Were taken up for consideration.

On motion of Mr. Gough,

Said substitute was amended, by adding at the end of the first section in the bill the following, "unless in such manner as can be discovered by others."
