

the premises, after or at the same time with the appointment of a receiver, and after such appointment, shall proceed with said bill as a general creditors bill for application of the assets of the partnership, and regarding said assets as a trust fund for the benefit of the creditors of said partnership; but beside distribution of assets as aforesaid, the court may decree likewise against the general and special partners, or the general partners only, payment of the claims of the original plaintiffs in said cause, and of all other creditors who according to the course of the court in cases of creditor, bill shall have become parties to the bill in said cause."

Which was read.

Mr. Carpenter, moved that the house adjourn,

Resolved in the affirmative.

The House accordingly adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

---

SATURDAY, January 21st, 1837.

The House met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The Speaker announced the following message as having been received from the Senate on yesterday, by their clerk, viz—

The bill entitled, an act to authorise McClintock Young, of Washington city, to bring into this State his slave William;

Also, the bill entitled, an act to authorise John Lammott, former collector in the third collection district in Baltimore county, to complete his collections;

Also, the bill entitled, an act to increase the number of trustees of Charlotte Hall School;

Also, the bill entitled, an act for the benefit of John C. Handy, clerk of Worcester county court;

Severally endorsed "will pass," and severally ordered to be engrossed;

Also, the bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act to incorporate the Patapsco Bank of Maryland, endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendments;"

Which amendments were severally read the first and by a special order the second time, severally assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed;

And delivered a bill originated in and passed by the Senate, entitled, an act to authorise and empower Sarah Mur-