

Which was read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Gough, chairman of the committee on engrossed bills, delivered the following report:

The committee on engrossed bills, beg leave to report that they have carefully examined, and compared the engrossed bill of the House of Delegates, number one, with the original thereof as passed by both Houses of the Legislature, since the commencement of the present session, and that they have found the same to be truly engrossed.

All which is respectfully submitted,

Harry D. Gough, chr.

By order,

Benjamin Seegar, cl'k.

Which was twice read and concurred in.

The engrossed bill of the House of Delegates, No. 1, was read the first and second time by special order, and assented to.

The clerk of the Senate returned said bill endorsed read and "assented to."

A deputation from the Senate being announced, Messrs. Schley and Wright members of that body appeared within the bar of the house, and informed the Speaker that his Excellency the Governor was attending in the Senate Chamber, and requested the attendance of this house to see him sign and seal the laws.

The Speaker left the chair, and attended by the members of this House, went to the Senate Chamber, and there presented the engrossed bill to the Governor, who signed the same, and affixed the Great Seal thereto, in the presence of both Houses.

The Speaker with the rest of the members returned, and resumed the chair.

On motion of Mr. McLean,

The House adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.
