

By the House of Delegates,
March 11th, 1837.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

A bill, entitled, an act relating to the free school fund heretofore received by Frederick and Baltimore counties, and now owned and held by the said counties, has by mistake, been sent up to you, before the same had been passed by this house—we respectfully ask you to return the same bill to the house.

Mr. Ely, chairman of the committee on manufactures, to which was referred the memorial of James D. Woodside of the city of Washington, praying remuneration for services as therein mentioned, reported unfavorably thereon, and recommended that said memorial be referred to the committee on claims;

Which was read the first, and by special order the second time, and concurred in.

Mr. Carpinter, chairman of the committee on divorces, made an unfavourable report upon the petition of Eliza, beth Harding of Dorchester county, praying to be divorced from her husband Matthew Harding;

Which was read the first and by special order the second time, and concurred in.

Mr. Tuck, from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, made an unfavourable report upon the petition of Nicholas D. Worthington, of Baltimore county, praying for the passage of a law enabling him to sell his real estate;

Which was read the first and by special order the second time and concurred in.

Mr. Tuck, from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, made an unfavourable report upon the petition of Thomas B. Hyason, and others of Kent county, praying the passage of a law authorising a compilation of all the acts of Assembly, constituting, creating, or in any manner relating to the powers and duties of the commissioners and levy courts of the several counties, and that a copy thereof be furnished to the members of said courts;

Which was read the first and by special order the second time and concurred in.

Mr. Ridgely, chairman of the select committee, made an unfavourable report upon the petition of sundry citizens of Anne Arundel county, praying the passage of an act to establish an additional school district in said county;

Which was read the first and by special order the second time and concurred in.
