

indictment in the county courts, in the same manner as other fines or forfeitures now are.

Sec. 31. And be it enacted, that if, upon counting the ballots or votes, it shall be found that a majority of said votes shall have been given in favor of holding a convention, then, and in that case it shall be the duty of the next General Assembly, as soon as it shall be organized, to provide by law for the holding of a convention to reform the government of this State, in accordance with the wishes of the people.

Sec. 32. And be it enacted, that the several counties and cities shall be represented in said convention, as they are entitled to be now represented in the House of Delegates.

Which was read.

Mr. Gough moved that said amendment be rejected
