

tribution within six weeks after the adjournment of every legislature.

Mr. Carpenter moved further to amend the bill by adding at the end thereof, as an additional section, the following,

And be it enacted, That hereafter, not more than 250 copies of the journal of proceedings be printed, five of which shall be sent to the clerks of the several counties, 50 copies to the State Library, and the balance to the members of the Legislature, as at present.

Determined in the negative.

The said bill having been read through as amended,

The question was then put, shall the said bill pass,

Resolved in the affirmative.

The Speaker announced that the hour had arrived for taking up the orders of the day.

Mr. Brengle moved to postpone the orders of the day,

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Brengle,

The house took up for consideration the bill reported by him, as chairman of the committee on internal improvements, entitled, a supplement to an act, entitled, an act to provide for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and for the completion of the Baltimore and Susquehanna Rail Road to the Borough of York, in the State of Pennsylvania.

On motion of Mr. Brengle,

Said bill was amended by adding at the end of the second section thereof, the following proviso.

And provided further, that if at any time before the principal of the the loan herein authorised shall become due, the nett revenues of the Company shall exceed the amount necessary for the payment of the interest thereon, the excess shall be applied to the payment of the interest on the loan under the act to which this is a supplement, and after the payment of the loan herein authorised, and interest, or the refusal of the person or persons, body corporate or politic, to whom the same may be owing, to receive the same, and interest when due, the State's claim and rights under the act to which this is a supplement, shall be, and remain as they were before the passage of this act.

And provided also, that no contract for a loan as aforesaid shall be made or entered into on any terms, which will require payment of the principal, or any part thereof, within ten years from the negotiating thereof.