

seem in danger, to withdraw the money so to be deposited, or any part thereof, and to deposite the same in such other bank or banks, or other monied institution, as he may select upon the terms and condition prescribed by the second section hereof.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the sum of 125,518 dollars, parcels of the States share of the surplus revenue of the United States, be deposited with the city of Baltimore upon condition that said city shall give bond to the State of Maryland, for the return of said sum when called for by the United States, to be loaned out to any incorporated company by said city, at an interest of not less than five per centum per annum.

Sec. 5 And be it enacted, That the sum of 874,482 dollars the residue of the States' share of the surplus revenue of the United States be, and the same is hereby appropriated and set apart as a fund for the advancement of the agricultural interests in this State to be loaned out on the security of unincumbered real-estate, to the inhabitants of the several counties hereinafter mentioned in the following proportions, that is to say: to the inhabitants of Somerset county, the sum of           dollars; to the inhabitants of Worcester county, the sum of           dollars; to the inhabitants of Dorchester county, the sum of           dollars; to the inhabitants of Talbot county, the sum of           dollars; to the inhabitants of Queen Anne's county, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Caroline the sum of           dollars; to the county of Kent, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Cecil, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Harford the sum of           dollars; to the county of Baltimore, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Anne Arundel, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Prince George's, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Calvert, the sum of           dollars; to the county of St. Mary's, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Charles, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Carroll, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Montgomery, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Frederick, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Washington, the sum of           dollars; to the county of Allegany, the sum of           dollars; to be loaned out by the Orphans' Court of the several counties of this State, at an interest of five per centum, per annum, to such persons who may apply for the same, subject to the following rules and conditions, viz: