Which was read.

Mr. Eccleston, rose to a point of order, whether after the bill had been read through and perfected by the house, it was competent to amend the bill without first moving a reconsideration thereof;

The speaker, Mr. Gantt, gave it as the opinion of the chair, that it was competent to amend the bill without moving a reconsideration;

The said amendment was then read.

Mr. Boyd, then moved to lay the bill and amendments on the table;

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Hood, moved that the house adjourn;

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred upon the amendment as offered by Mr. Boyd;
