So the amendment was rejected.

The question then recurred upon the passage of the bill;

Mr. Eccleston, called for the previous question, that is, shall the main question be now put?

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Tuck, then moved to amend said bill by adding at the end thereof, the following proviso;

Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, that if the Farmers' Bank of Maryland, at Annapolis, will agree to receive the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, or any lesser sum parcel of the aforesaid monies, and to pay an interest therefor at and after the rate of five per cent per annum payable half yearly, and to pledge the whole capital and effects of said Bank, for payment of interest as aforesaid, and for repayment of the aforesaid principal sum of money on the requisition of the Treasurer for the Western Shore, in instalments not exceeding the sum of $30,000 in any one month, and will also agree to loan the aforesaid sum of money to the inhabitants of Anne Arundel, Prince George's, Charles, Calvert and St. Mary's counties, in such proportions as the said treasurer shall from time to time, determine, then and in such case the sum, of two hundred thousand dollars, or such lesser sum shall be deposited by the said treasurer in the said Bank on the terms and condi-
