

... now
... that we should
... suitable one for the adjournment
sine die.

Which was read.

On the question being put, will the house adopt the substitute?

It was resolved in the affirmative.

The said message was then read the second time assented to and sent to the senate.

Mr. Bruce, submitted the following message.

By the House of Delegates,
March 18th, 1837.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose to appoint a joint committee with the concurrence of your honourable body, to wait upon his Excellency the Governor, and invite him to attend in the Senate Chamber this afternoon at five o'clock, for the purpose of signing the laws that have been passed during the present session of the Legislature, and have appointed Messrs. _____, on the part of this house for that purpose.

Which was read—And,

On motion of Mr. Tuck,

Ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Comegys, chairman of the select committee, to which was referred the bill from the senate, entitled, an act to confirm an act, entitled, an act to repeal all such parts of the constitution and form of government, as relates to the division of Cecil county, into four separate election districts, delivered the following report.

The committee to whom was referred the bill from the Senate, entitled, an act to confirm an act entitled, an act to repeal all such parts of the Constitution and form of government as relates to the division of Cecil county, into four separate election districts, have had the same under consideration, and report, that your committee have carefully examined and considered the several petitions on which the change proposed to be made is founded, and find that only one of them proposes that the whole district location of the county, as now established, should be broken up and new modeled.

Two of the petitions pray that a new district may be laid off from the second and fourth districts, two others ask the division of the first and second into three, and one other petition proposes that from the third and fourth districts shall be created a new one, and there is a counter memorial nu-