

March Court 1733 135

until next Court and he hath it and the same day is given to the said James Broom here also &

At which said next Court to wit the nineteenth day of March and Dow. One thousand seven hundred and thirty three came again as well the said James Broom as the said James Dickerson by their attorneys & and whereupon the said James Dickerson as before defends the force and injury taken & and says that he did not assume in manner and form as the said James Broom above against him hath complained and of this he puts himself upon the Country &

Whereupon the said James Dickerson by his attorney & prays the Court here that they would dissolve themselves into a Court of Chancery according to an Act of Assembly in such Case made and provided and determine the premises & according to Equity which is to him granted he filing his Bill for that purpose which Bill is as followeth to wit

Sheweth that the undersigned the Justice of the County & in a Court of Chancery sitting - Humbly Complaining sheweth unto your worships your Orator James Dickerson that on or about the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and twenty eight your Orator had Dealings with a certain James Broom and paid the same Sum all or the greatest part of what your Orator Really Owed him that after that Time the said James left this Country and did not return before the year seventeen hundred and thirty one or thirty two and your Orator further sheweth that after the return of the said James the said James came to account with your Orator (your Orator being at that Time Non Composmentis) and altho' your Orator Owed the said Broom nothing at all or but Very little on ballance of Account yet so it is that the said James Broom in taking Advantage of your Orator's Insanity of Mind Tendered to your Orator a Note for three pounds One Shilling and Six pence to be paid in pence at Ten Shillings per Cent payable by your Orator to the said Broom in some short Time after the Date of the said Note which your Orator being in the Condition & of an Unsound Mind believed he signed and your Orator further sheweth that altho' the said Broom well knows that nothing or but Very little of the said Sum is due yet so it is that Intending to Defraud and oppress your Orator he hath Brought Action at Law against your Orator on the said Note and your Orator further sheweth that at Law he is without Relief herein Intender Consideration whereof and for that your Orator by the Strict Rules of Law is without Remedy herein and to the End the said James Broom may perfect Answer make to all the premises as fully as if the same were hereby particularly Interrogated and that your Orator may be Relieved therein according to Equity and Good Conscience May it please your Worships to grant to your Orator his Lordships Writ of Injunction to Comand the said James Broom to Stay his proceedings on his said Suit at Law against your Orator till