

March Court --- 1733 --- 136 for him .. whereupon the said William Gray by William Beukingham his attorney Cometh and defendeth the force and Injury when he and prays Leave thereof to Impare here until next Court and he hath it and the same day is given to the said John here also he

All which said next Court to witt the Ninteenth day of March and Dow. One thousand seven hundred and thirty three came again as well the said John Burnale as the said William Gray by their attorney and where upon the same William says that he cannot give way the action of the said John nor can he say but but that he did assume upon himself in manner and form as the said John above against him hath Complained and as to the damage of the same John by him by Omission of the premises of the premises in that part Sustained the same William saith and Confesseth that the said John has Sustained damages by Omission of the premises beyond his Costs and Charges by him about his Suit in that part opposed to four thousand nine hundred and Sixty nine pounds of tobacco and not more and because the said John deny's not this but the same allegation Confesseth to be true prays Judgment for those damages above Confessed together with his Costs and Charges and to him to be adjudged he Therefore by Consent of the parties and it is Considered that the said John Burnale Recover against the said William Gray his damages and to four thousand nine hundred and Sixty nine pounds of tobacco and Charges and to the same John by the Court here and Consent of the parties and adjudged and the said William in mercy he
