

March Court --- 1734 --- (248)

Side of y^e. R^r River and is distance from the edge of a Marsh side twelve poles) ha been known to him this deponant to be the second boulder of a tract of Land called Morancavit ever since he can well remember being informed of the same by his father John Roseman deceased and by M^r. Roger Woolford late of Somerset County the first taker up of a tract of Land called Woolford adjoining to the R^r. Land called morancavit and the said deponant further declareth that ~~Old~~ Roger Woolford late of Dorchester County deceased informed him this deponant that the above described Hickory which stands in the room of the decayed Gum was the second boulder of the R^r. Land called Morancavit and was the divisionall boulder between the Grand father of this deponant and the father of him the R^r. Woolford and that the R^r. ~~Old~~ Roger Woolford desired him this deponant to joyn with him in a warrant of Resurvey which he declined, not being willing to put himself to the Cost thereof all which he declare to be just and true according to the best of knowledge and remembrance, and further saith not

Sworn to before us on the Land called morancavit at a Hickory this 4th of January 1734

Willm Stoughton
John Elzey
Wm McCommy

This Deposition of George Roseman Sen^r. aged fifty two years or there about taken before us. Commis^r. appointed to Examine evidence to prove and perpetuate the bound of a tract of Land called morancavit this 4th of January 1734

This deponant being Sworn on the holy Evangelist of Almighty God saith that a Gum which stood near a Hickory which is now marked with five Notches on four Sides (and bears south four degrees East to the house of M^r. Randall Nevill on y^e. south Side of Monocan River and South eighty three degrees west to y^e. house of M^r. Sarah Elzey on the north side of y^e. R^r. River and distance from y^e. Marsh side twelve poles) was when he was a lad well known to him and that the R^r. Gum was then marked this deponant further saith that he heard his brother John Roseman when he was building his house tell his father that M^r. Roger Woolford late of Somerset County complained he had fell a red Oak on his Land and that his father said if you will go to the Gum and Steer a Course north by the North star you will find whether it be on M^r. Woolford Land or mine and accordingly he this deponant went with his Brother John Roseman to y^e. Gum