

March Court — — — 1734 — — — (249)
(near to which of afore described Hickory now stands) and set a Quare by the north star and came a (rop the bowes of of. J. tree which the said Woolford complained of all which he declares to be Just & true to the best of his knowledge and remembrance and further saith not Sworn to before us on of Land called moran casit at a Hickory ^{George Roseman} this 4th of January 1734

Willm. Stoughton } The deposition of John Roseman aged fifty John Elroy } four years or there about taken before us (Commissi:
W. M. Simpson } — — — — — :ioners appointed to Examine Evidences to prove and perpetuate of. bound of a tract of land called Moran casit this 4th of January 1734

This Depoant being sworn on the holy Everage:
:list of almighty God sayeth that when the Land Commissioners were proving the bound of a tract of land belonging to (old Roger Woolford late of Dorchester County laying on Monocan River he heard Mr. Levin Denwood (being one of of. people called Quakers) examined by the said Commissioners who affirmed that a Gum which was decayed and the top fallen off (near to which a Hickory now stands notched with five notches on four sides bearing south four degrees East to of. house of Mr. Randall Nevill on the south side of Monocan River and south eighty three degrees west to of. house of Mr Sarah Elroy and distance from the Marsh side twelve poles) was the divisional bound between the lands of the sd. Roger Woolford and John Roseman deceased this Depoant further sayeth that his father John Roseman told him this Depoant that he might have no regard to the sd. Gum for it would neither be a benefit nor a disadvantage to him all which he declares to be Just and true to the best of his knowledge & remembrance & further sayeth not — John Roseman Sworn to before us on the land called moran casit at a Hickory this fourth day of January 1734 Willm. Stoughton } The Deposition of George Dashiell aged forty John Elroy } four years or there about taken before us (Commissi:

W. M. Simpson } — — — — — :ioners appointed to Examine Evidences to prove & per petuate the bound of a tract of land called moran casit

this fourth day of January Anno^{no} Domini 1734 This Depoant being Sworn on the holy Evangelist of almighty God sayeth that about fifteen years ago he was Car^{ri}ed to the Land Commissioners of Somerset County and the sd. Commissioners being carried to a Hickory marked ^{(with}