Said bill was then sent to the House of Delegates.

A bill entitled, An act to amend the 4th Article of the Code of Public Local Laws, by amending the 33d section of said Article, relating to the police and general powers of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and repealing the 774th, 775th, 776th, and 777th sections of said Article, relating to the features of said city, and the power of the Mayor and City Council to establish and regulate the same, inserting in lieu thereof, the sections so repealed, the following sections: ———; for the purpose of providing a permanent police for the city of Baltimore;

Was taken up for a third reading.

Mr. Yellott submitted the following point of order :

That the bill just read, entitled, An act to amend the 4th Article of the Code of Public Local Laws, by amending the 33d section of said Article, relating to the police and general powers of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and repealing the 774th, 775th, 776th, and 777th sections of said Article, relating to the features of said city, and the power of the Mayor and City Council to establish and regulate the same, inserting in lieu thereof, the section so repealed, the following sections: ———; for the purpose of providing a permanent police for the city of Baltimore, having been read a second time on yesterday, and an amendment thereto adopted, as will appear by the Journals of the Senate; and having been then, after the adoption of said amendment, ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, and not having to this time been actually engrossed as so ordered, it is not in order, according to the rules of the Senate, now to take the vote of the Senate upon the final passage of said bill, before such actual engrossment of said bill, including the amendment so adopted.

The Chair overruled the point of order.

Mr. Yellott appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follow :
