

BALTIMORE, December 16th, 1859.

Correct.

THOS. H. MARTIN.

Test—DANIEL E. MYERS, J. P.

Adjourned to December 17, 1859.

BALTIMORE, December 17th, 1859.

HENRY HANZSCHE, a witness of lawful age, produced on the part of the contestants, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

Question. Were you at the tenth ward polls on the 2d of November, 1859; at what hour, and for how long?

Answer. I passed through Holliday Street at half-past ten, and remained opposite the polls about twenty minutes.

Question. While you were there did you see any persons vote more than once, and if so, from what house did they come?

Answer. I did; they came from Levy's place; the time that I was standing there I saw three or four persons go down to Levy's place, put on a white hat, return to the polls and vote several times each.

Question. Did you see any of these persons to whom you have referred come out of Levy's place the first time they voted?

Answer. Yes, sir.

Cross-examination.

Question. In which ward are you a voter?

Answer. The sixth.

Question. Did you vote on the 2d of November, 1859, and if so, with or without difficulty?

Answer. I voted, and had no difficulty; the reason, I was acquainted with the roughs, and was escorted up by one.

Question. Are you a member of the American party?

Answer. No, sir.

Question. Are you a well known legal voter in the sixth ward?

Answer. Yes, sir.

Question. Which of your acquaintances, on the 2d of November, 1859, after persistent efforts to vote, failed to do so; state what efforts they made, as observed by you?

Answer. I do not know of any; I did not stay long; I walked over, put in my ballot, going from my place of business, on Baltimore Street, near Calvert, stopping at the tenth ward polls on my way; reached the sixth ward polls, deposited my ballot, and came immediately away.

Question. At the time you were at the sixth ward polls, was not the same a fair, free, and open poll, so far as you could judge?