By the Senate,

January 30th, 1860.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

The Senate very respectfully requests the House of Delegates to consider that the Senate will always conduct their business with due regard to the public interests, and whenever those interests require speedy legislation, the Senate will always perform their duty in that behalf, and therefore a due regard for their own dignity compels them to reply to your message, that they deem it unnecessary and unusual, and decline to accede to your request.

By order,

WM. KILGOUR,
Secretary.
