

The memorial of David Keener, Wm. H. Keener, and eighty-nine others, relative to the protection of wild fowl ;

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries.

Mr. McKaig presented the petition of Elias Taylor, Wm. H. Hayward, F. W. Brune, and seventy-two others, relative to the protection of wild fowl ;

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries.

Mr. Stone presented the following petitions :

The petition of John Mann, Edward F. Jenkins, and fifty-two others, relative to the protection of wild fowl ;

The petition of John Ridgley, of Hampton, Henry B. Chew, W. E. Stansbury, and fifty-seven others, relative to the protection of wild fowl ;

The memorial of William Jessup, Charles Carter, and seventy others, relative to the protection of wild fowl ;

The petition of George W. Westwood, Joseph M. Peregoy, and sixty-seven others, relative to the protection of wild fowl ;

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries.

Mr. Duvall presented the petition of Edward Leer, and other citizens, of Montgomery county, against the incorporation of Ellicotts Mills ;

Which was referred to Messrs. Duvall, Watkins, and Lynch.

Mr. Duvall presented the petition of Capt. French Forrest, surviving administrator of Joseph Forrest, deceased ;

Which was referred to Messrs. Duvall, Smith, and Franklin.

Mr. Bradley presented the following petitions :

The memorial of R. Goldsborough, and Thomas Aschen, and thirty-six other citizens of Queen Anne's county, in relation to the grain inspection laws ;

¹ The memorial of Dr. John C. Earle, and other citizens of Queen Anne's county, in relation to the grain inspection laws of this State ;

The memorial of J. Knotts, John H. Downs, and sundry other citizens of Queen Anne's county, in relation to the grain inspection laws ;