

IN THE YEAR 1859,

Warehouse No. 3 inspected,	11,987	hlds.
Shipped,	11,162	"
Amount of scraps,	22	"

Proceeds from sale thereof, $454 14.

Average number of men employed, 26.

Two sets of scales in this house are so small and frequently out of order, your Committee would earnestly recommend they should be sold and new ones purchased.

Your Committee examined Warehouse No. 4, and find it under the Inspector, Mr. R. T. Jenkins, in good repair.

Your Committee further find, from the information furnished :

IN THE YEAR 1858,

Warehouse No. 4 inspected,	8,111	hlds.
Shipped,	8,749	"
Amount of scraps,	23	"

Proceeds from the sale thereof, $530 30.

Average number of men employed, 18.

IN THE YEAR 1859,

Warehouse No. 4 inspected,	8,865	hlds.
Shipped,	7,696	"
Amount of scraps,	20	"

Proceeds from the sale thereof, $440 78.

The average number of men employed, 18,

Your Committee visited Warehouse No. 5, and after a thorough examination find it in a most excellent condition. Throughout the entire building there is evidence of great care and attention on the part of the gentlemanly and polite Inspector, C. P. Montague. Upon an examination of the books of this Warehouse, we found the labor account to be greatly increased, and in justice to the Inspector your Committee state, that the unusually large quantity of Tobacco received from the West for storage, and the comparatively limited amount shipped, the Warehouse being filled, the Inspector, under the instruction of the Comptroller, rented other Warehouses, remote from his own, thereby causing him to incur the expense of a large number of extra hands. For the correctness of this, your Committee would respectfully refer you to the Comptroller's Report for 1860, page XIII.

Your Committee further find, from the information furnished by S. T. Addams, the gentlemanly and efficient chief clerk :