

Q. So far as you saw of that election, was there any intimidation or violent hindrance to voters?

A. No sir, I saw nothing of the kind to my knowledge, but only I was not there long. The time I was there, I saw two young men with a passage of arms between themselves, which I thought was the result of whiskey. That was the only fight I saw.

Q. Was the fight between individuals or bodies of men?

A. It was between two individuals as I thought, sir. There was no body of men that I noticed. I don't suppose I was there both times put together, not over half an hour.

[The printed testimony having arrived.]

Thomas Woolen, was recalled for cross-examination.

By Mr. Gordon—What portion of the city do you live in?

A. The east end.

Q. Does the ward extend down to the water?

A. Yes, down to the water.

Q. How far up the other way?

A. As far as the Point.

Q. Is Laudenslager's Hill in the first ward?

A. It is.

Q. What portion of the ward is the largest population in?

A. Towards the Point.

Q. Is the city built up continuously to Laudenslager's Hill?

A. No.

Q. What intervenes between the Point and the Hill?

A. Waste ground.

Q. How much is there?

A. I cannot say.

Q. Are there scattering houses all around the Hill?

A. It is all thickly settled.

Q. How far is it from the Point to the Hill?

A. I suppose it is a quarter of a mile; I don't think it is more.

Q. Where were the polls held?

A. They were held right on the Hill.

Q. Was there a large portion of the population down where the polls were held?

A. Yes.

Q. Were those who reside near the common principally Germans?

A. There were a great many Germans and Irish.

Q. Were there any obstructions on the common across there?

A. I could not see what was going on there, as I was in the house.

Q. Did you hear any discharge of arms?
