

By Mr. Freaner—Q. Are there any political clubs in that ward?

A. I think there is one.

Q. What is the name of it?

A. The St. Lawrence.

Q. Do you belong to any club?

A. I do not. I belonged to the St. Lawrence club at one time.

Q. What was its object?

A. I don't know what its object was.

Q. Although you belonged to it?

A. I did not know the object of the club.

Q. Did they have any meetings just before the election?

A. Certainly they had.

Q. How long before?

A. They did not meet as a club, but they met as the fifth ward council, the night before the election.

Q. Did you see anybody struck that day?

A. I did not.

Q. Did you see Ras Levy there?

A. I did not.

Q. Did you see any pushing?

A. I did not.

Q. Did you hear any pistol fired?

A. I did not.

Q. You are hard of hearing, however.

A. I was not so dull of hearing but that I could have heard it from the place in which I was.

Q. You say there was no pistol fired?

A. Not that I heard.

Q. Do you say, on your oath, that you do not know what the object of the St. Lawrence Club was?

A. The obligations were never read to me; but whether they were read or not, I never heard what they were.

Q. Was it a political club?

A. Yes.

Witness. I am 53 years of age, and I was born in Baltimore; I was at the election in November last and voted at the fifth ward polls. I was there a little before 12 o'clock, and remained there a very short time; when I was there everything was quiet, and there was nothing at all of disorder to prevent any persons from voting—all was quiet and orderly.
