

Mr. Hagner—What do you mean by saying you saw no opposition?

A. In those who were there. I did not see a sign nor a whimper, on the part of any body.

L. D. Taylor, sworn.

By Mr. Hagner—Witness. I was at the election in the sixth ward in November last. I think I arrived at about half-past ten, and remained until nearly one. I went and had dinner, and came back again about a quarter to two, and remained until four o'clock. I took a walk from that to the first ward, and then I went to some of the up-town wards.

Q. State the character of the election?

A. The character of the election was very quiet. There was some little disturbance occurred between two men, in which one of them drew a pistol or a sword-cane, but the quarrel was prevented without any damage being done.

Q. Did you see any unusual amount of pushing or crowding?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you see any violence or intimidation of voters?

A. I saw the usual pushing at the window.

Q. Is there always pushing?

A. Some, more or less.

Q. How long have you been a voter?

A. I am 45 years of age, and since I have been of age, I have voted.

Q. Compare that election with others that you have seen, for quiet or otherwise?

A. It was one of the quietest elections, so far as a general comparison is concerned, that I have ever seen, as regards fighting and general disorder.

Mr. Morgan—Any clubs in that ward?

A. There is a club called the Ashland Club.

Q. Did you see any of the members at the polls?

A. Yes.

By Mr. Freaner—Q. How near were the polls to a house kept by one Pryor.

A. About a square off, perhaps.

By Mr. Wallis—Q. What is your occupation?

A. I am a tailor.

Q. Is that your present occupation?

A. At present I am in the Appeal Tax Court Department.

By Mr. Morgan—Q. Are you a member of any political club?

A. I was originally a member of the Ashland Club. I attended perhaps three or four of their meetings.
