A. No.

By Mr. Freaner-Q. Do you know Ned Lee?

A. I do.

Q. Did you see him at the polls?

A. I did.

Q. Did you hear him blow a whistle?

A. I did not.

Q. What was his condition?

A. During one part of the day he was about half drunk.

Q. What is his character when drunk?

A. He is pretty turbulent.

Q. Did you hear any whistle blown?

A. I did not.

Q. If a whistle had been blown, do you think you would have heard it?

A. A whistle might have been blown without my hearing it.

By Mr. Wallis—Q. Are you a member, or have you been a member, of any of the clubs.

A. I was a member of the Jersferson club, and my name may be there now for all I know.

Q. That is in the seventh ward?

A. Yes.

Q. Is it a political club of the American party?

A. Yes.

By Mr. Freaner-Q. Is Ned Lee a member of that club.

A. I believe he is.

By Mr; Hagner—Q. Is it a new thing to have political clubs in Baltimore?

A. No, sir. They have been there to my knowledge something like six years.

Q. You know of none before that?

A. None previously, of my own knowledge.

Samuel S. Spicer, sworn.

By Mr. Hagner-Q. What is your age?

A. Forty-six in July.
Q. Where do you vote?
A. In the seventh ward.

Q. Will you state whether you were at the election on the second of November last?

A. Not at the seventh ward. Q. What polls were you at? A. I was at the tenth ward.

Q. What time of the day were you at the election?

A. I would state that on that day I did not get a chance to
