

A. No sir. Perhaps that was the crowd that came down German street. There were a few drunken parties that came around the corner and made a noise, but no arrests were made that I saw. It was rather more a noisy than a fighting crowd.

Q. You did not see Dr. Williams beaten?

A. I heard of it, but I did not see it.

Q. You did not see Mr. Bean struck?

A. I did not.

Mr. Hagner—Did you see Dr. Chas. H. Moore there?

A. I do not know him.

Mr. Freeman—Are there any political clubs in that ward?

A. I don't think there are. It is a very quiet ward.

James Robertson, sworn.

By Mr. Hagner—Q. What is your occupation?

A. I am engaged in the sale of dry goods close by the thirteenth ward polls, and that is where I voted.

Q. State what time you were there?

A. I went to the polls about half-past eleven, and voted, and went immediately away. There was no disturbance while I was there. My place of business is about 150 or 200 yards from the polls, but not in the same street. The polls were held at the corner of Sharp and German. A man that lived in the same house with me was a member of the Reform committee, and he came and told me that they had all left. As soon as the Reform Committee left, which was about twelve or half-past twelve, I again went to the polls, but remained a very few minutes, and again returned about half-past one. The first time I was there, the Reform Committee had not left.

Q. You saw no disorder or intimidation to voters?

A. I did not. There might have been a good deal of disorder during the day whilst I was not there, but I saw none of it. Reformers or anybody could have voted there.

Q. Did any other persons have more difficulty in voting than you experienced?

A. I suppose not. The thirteenth ward is a very quiet ward; and so far as my observation extended, I think it kept up its reputation, and I don't think there is a gentleman in the ward who will say anything to the contrary.

By Mr. Wallis—Q. What time do you say you were first there?

A. Half-past eleven, and I remained about five minutes.

Q. Your second visit?

A. About half-past twelve; about the time the vigilance
