

committee left the ward; for some of them left the wards in the different parts of the city at the same time.

Q. How long did you remain?

A. About five minutes.

Q. What time was your third visit?

A. About half-past one.

Q. How long did you stay?

A. A very few minutes; I think half an hour would cover the entire time I spent at the polls during the day.

Mr. Hagner—Did you see any unusual disturbance or crowding whilst you visited the polls at these different times?

A. I can say, during the time I was there, I did not see the slightest obstruction or disturbance.

Mr. Wallis—I understand you to say that there might have been a good deal of disturbance, although you might not have seen it?

Witness—I will go this far: if there had been much disorder there, I should have heard something about it.

Mr. Morgan—When this party told you that the Reformers left the polls, did he assign any reason for their so doing?

Witness—I think they were very nice gentlemen, but they were misled in leaving at that time.

Mr. Freaner—Do you think they were misled in leaving the tenth ward polls?

Witness—Oh, no! I spoke of the move.

Q. To what party do you belong?

A. I am the best Whig you ever saw on earth.

P. Wilson, sworn.

By Mr. Hagner—Witness. I am aged 64, and live in the fifteenth ward, No. 188 Hanover street, and have resided there for the last eleven years, and been a voter in the city of Baltimore for some twenty-six years; I was at the election on the 2d of November last; I reached the polls somewhere about twenty minutes before nine, and I remained there from that time until twelve o'clock at night; I was one of the judges of election at the fifteenth ward; we had a most deplorable state of things in the morning before the polls were opened; I speak in reference to the death of Mr. Kyle; after that passed off, I have never seen more quietness in the fifteenth ward than there was on that day. I am not aware that there was any person either beaten out, hustled out, or driven out in any manner whatever, entitled to vote there; on the contrary, the question was frequently asked of men of the opposite party, "Aint you going up to vote?" They said,
