

ANNAPOLIS, TUESDAY, Feb. 21, 1860.

The committee met this evening in McCullough's house at seven o'clock.

Mr. Freaner in the chair.

By Mr. Schley—Q. What is your occupation?

A. I am in the dry good commission business.

Q. Doing business where?

A. In German street, between Hanover and Charles.

Q. How long have you resided in Baltimore?

A. Since 1837.

Q. Are you one of the qualified voters of the city?

A. I believe I am.

Q. How long have you been in the habit of voting?

A. Since 1843.

Q. Did you vote at the last election?

A. I did.

Q. In which ward did you vote?

A. In the fourteenth.

Q. At what hour were you at that ward?

A. I was there at the opening of the polls, and remained during most of the day until about 5 o'clock, with the exception of two or three times, when I left to go to my place of business.

Q. Had you any difficulty in voting?

A. Not the slightest.

Q. Did you witness any rioting or violence? Or just state what you saw touching the quiet of the election, or the reverse, at the polls in the city of Baltimore on 2nd November last?

A. I went to the polls on my way to my place of business. I was there when the polls opened, and everything was remarkably quiet until I think (but I may be wrong about the time) about half an hour or an hour, when there were two lines drawn in front of the window, on one side, some man unknown to me made a remark, and a man on the other side
