

Dashiell,
Franklin,
Grahame,

Lynch,
McKaig,

Whitaker,
Yellott—12.

So the Senate rejected the amendment.

The hour having arrived to which was postponed the order of the day,

On motion of Mr. Miles,

The order of the day was postponed until 2 o'clock.

Mr. Miles offered the following

AMENDMENT :

Insert after the word "dollars" in the 5th line, the words "for the purpose of paying the debts of said Society, which have been uselessly incurred, and."

On motion of Mr. Dashiell,

The memorial of the State Agricultural Society was read.

Mr. Duvall moved that when the Senate adjourn it stand adjourned until half-past seven o'clock.

The yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follow :

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Duvall,
Lynch,

Miles,

Townsend—4.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Brooke, P't,
Blackiston,
Dashiell,
Franklin,
Gardiner,

Goldsborough, of Talbot,
Heckart,
Kimmel,
McKaig,

Nuttle,
Smith,
Stone,
Whitaker,
Yellott—14.

So the Senate rejected the motion.

A message was received from His Excellency, the Governor of Maryland, through the hands of James R. Partridge, Secretary of State, covering resolutions from the Legislature of New York, in regard to re-opening the slave trade ;

Which was referred to the Committee on Judicial Proceedings.

The Senate adjourned.