Franklin,	Miles,

So the Senate rejected the amendment.

Mr. Gardiner offered the following

AMENDMENT:

Strike out "three thousand" and insert "two thousand" in the place thereof.

Which was rejected.

Mr. Miles moved that, as the second section of the bill having been passed over, was not subject to amendment.

The Chair decided the motion out of order.

Mr. Miles appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The question being taken on the appeal:

"Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the opinion of the Senate?"

Was determined in affirmative.

Mr. Goldsborough, of Talbot, offered the following

AMENDMENT:

In the second line of section 1, strike out "29" and insert "32."

Mr. Stone offered the following

AMENDMENT:

Amend by inserting "thirty-one thousand dollars."

The question being taken upon the amendment as offered by Mr. Stone, the yeas and nays appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.
