

Are all the second class stations on the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road supplied with Agents? If not, why they are not so supplied; and how said agents are paid, and by whom, and the amount received by each?

What has been the minimum rate received per barrel, during the past year, for flour and pork, by the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company, from Wheeling and Parkersburg to Baltimore, when those articles have been consigned from west of the Ohio river to New York?

Mr. Watkins, offered the following order:

Ordered, That three thousand copies of the Report of the State Chemist, with the accompanying Map, be printed; and that one thousand copies, with the accompanying map, be placed in the hands of the State Chemist for distribution.

Which was adopted.
