Said bill was then sent to the House of Delegates.

The following message was received from His Excellency, Governor Hicks, through the hands of George W. Jefferson, Private Secretary:

STATE OF MARYLAND,

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 20, 1860.

To the Senate of Maryland:

Gentlemen:—I have received from the Committee of Arrangements for the inauguration of the Equestrian Statue of Washington, at the seat of government, on the 22d, a communication inviting the Governor and Staff, and the members of Assembly, to be present on that occasion and take part in the ceremonies; which, in pursuance of the request, I have the honor to make known to the Senate.

THO. H. HICKS.

Which was accepted.

Mr. Yellott presented the memorial of Dr. G. G. Brewer, Dr. Marbury Brewer, and other citizens of Baltimore, in favor of the Brock Railway Charter;

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. Yellott presented the memorial of J. Dean Smith, Jno. F. McJilton, Wm. R. S. Gittings, and other citizens of Baltimore, praying the passage of the Brock Railway Company Charter;

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. McKaig presented the memorial of L. R. Wollen and seven others, against the bill exempting three hundred dollars from execution;
