

spector General, of the number of bushels of grain inspected by him, and the Inspector General shall make an entry of the same in a bound book, containing the number of bushels inspected for each person; and the Inspector General shall charge and receive for the inspection and weighing and measuring of wheat, corn and rye, and for the inspection and measuring of oats, one-half cent per bushel on the entire cargo, or lot; one-half to be paid by the purchaser, and the other half by the seller; and the Inspector General shall, on the first week of every month, make a return, in writing, verified by affidavit, of the number of bushels of grain inspected—distinguishing each kind, and the entire amount thereof, and the amount of money received for said inspection, weighing and measuring, at the times aforesaid, and shall retain the amount due for measuring, to be paid to the measurer, not to exceed in any case one-fourth of a cent per bushel, and shall pay the remaining amount into the Treasury of the State, as other moneys due the State are now paid; and the Treasurer of the State, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, shall allow and pay over to the Inspector General, and each of the other Inspectors, one-quarter of a cent per bushel on all grain so inspected and paid for into the Treasury as aforesaid; Provided, the same shall not amount to more than twenty-five hundred dollars, in the aggregate, in any one year, for the Inspector General, and two thousand dollars for each other Inspector; and the balance remaining in the Treasury shall be the amount remaining after paying the annual salaries of the Inspectors and the charges of their office, which charges are to be paid in like manner, out of the Treasury, from the same fund.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Grahame offered the following

AMENDMENTS :

Section tenth, line second, after the word "rye," insert the words "oats and cloverseed ;"

In the fourth line, section tenth, after the word "bushel," insert "of clover seed, sixty-four pounds to the bushel ;"

Which were adopted.

Mr. Blackiston offered the following

AMENDMENT :

Section tenth, line sixth, strike out all after the word "respectively," to the end of the section ;

Which was adopted.

Mr. Yellott offered the following