Said bill was then returned to the House of Delegates.

The Clerk of the House of Delegates delivered the following message:

> By the House of Delegates,
>   March 2d, 1860.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We respectfully concur in the proposition of your Honorable Body, fixing the hour of 12, M., to-day, for the election of United States Senator, and we further propose, with your concurrence, to fix the same hour for the election of Directors in the different Banks.

By order,

M. Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read.

The President laid before the Senate a communication from Messrs. Scott and McCullough, in regard to the Code;
Which was read, and

On motion of Mr. Yellott,

Ordered to be printed on the Journal, and laid on the table.

To the Honorable,

The General Assembly of Maryland:

In compliance with a note at the end of the volume of Public General Laws, we submit the following additional Errata to the Code. The suggestions for alterations have already been made to the Chairman of the respective Committees, and bills furnished embodying the changes we proposed.

The additional errata are as follow:

The errata reported on page 84, section 88, should read "Insert 'in' after 'if' in the first line, and strike out 'and' before 'any' in the sixth line.

The errata on page 264, is in section 25, and not in section 35.

The errata on page 390, is in section 37, and not in section 39.
