

To be Inspector General of Grain in Baltimore city :

William Frazier, of Dorchester county.

James Treakle, of Howard county, Thomas D. C. Ruth, of Queen Anne's county, Edward J. Ballard, of Baltimore city, William Godwin, of Baltimore city, to be Assistant Inspectors of Grain in Baltimore city.

For Inspectors of Manure in Baltimore city :

John Guyton, for the Northern District, Bruff W. Tall, for the Southern District, Henry J. Carroll, for the Eastern District, William Hayne, for the Western District.

For Inspectors of Fish in Baltimore city :

William T. Prime, Chief Inspector, Daniel Orrell, Inspector, Richard C. Green, Inspector.

For Weighmaster of Live Stock in Baltimore city :

Harry F. Turner.

For State Wharfinger in Baltimore city :

John W. Ayler.

For Inspectors and Weighers of Hay and Straw :

John T. Mitchell, at the Western Scales, George W. Pillson, at the Eastern Scales.

To be Warden of the Maryland Penitentiary :

Alfred D. Evans.

To be Auctioneers in Baltimore city :

J. Latimer Hoffman, John Coulson, F. W. Bennett, W. W. Taylor, S. H. Gover, John B. Cannon, George L. Harrison, James R. Chance, S. J. Soper, William Hamilton, George Gibson, Edward L. Thomas, William B. Lewis, John D. Hardy, Alfred C. N. Matthews, Richard Lemmon.

To be Notaries Public in Baltimore city :

William Gilmor, John M. Walker, Lewis Sutton, David Ridgely.

To be Directors in the Maryland Penitentiary :

John Hurst, of Baltimore county, and Richard Middleton, of Baltimore city, for three years from the first Monday in May, 1860, when their present commissions expire.