

I don't know that it is proper for me to write to you in this manner about a public official, but I have not asked anybody in this matter, and it has been published through the columns of the Liberator. I have written to Mr. W. and I have stated to you in the letter, and could be substantiated in any court of law, if necessary, by undoubted testimony.

As I before intimated, I have had a slight acquaintance with you, and have presumed to make the within statement, believing that you will, in a spirit of justice and common sense, grant the people a fair expression of sentiment, at least those who have always been hostile to the Unionists of Maryland, who are now and have always been willing to assume all they possess, and the Government may be sustained and improved.

I am, with kindest regards,

Yours very truly,

Geo. W. Parsons

R. N. - neglected to mention that the Judges of P. A. District, who were ordered here yesterday under arrest, were released by Gen. Van Hook, who happened to be in town.
